Just as the last year flew by, this one is off to a fast start as well!

We pray everyone had a great holiday season celebrating the birth of our Savior and ringing in the New Year to 2012. For our family, this year is the beginning of a fresh start. We are looking forward to what the Lord has for us and what He plans to do through us and this ministry. We love the holiday season, but especially celebrating the beginning of something "new". It's like the anticipation of a gift that has yet to be opened. This year as you face the mountains, and of course some valleys—make sure to keep in focus that all things work together for good to those that are in

We look forward to seeing salvations, healings, restoration, and growth in the Body of Christ for the Kingdom of God in 2012!

Christ Jesus. Sometimes it is so much easier said than actually seeing and walking through, yet it is a promise from our Father to us. We can rest in His plan and purpose. It won't all be in our timing, but in His perfect time.

We are so bombarded by the negative news and reports about the economy, the degrading of our society, and none of it has hope. It impacts our faith if we allow it. Stand strong and walk in His promises. It's all in the Word!

It's time to drive the stake in the ground and CHOOSE to follow what is written and laid before us. Make 2012 the year of turnaround for your faith, family, and community. It is a NEW YEAR with a fresh beginning! You CAN DO IT!
